13) Schemes Administered by CDCs

CDCs administer various government programmes and schemes to help the needy residents, by providing social and job assistance. Through the Community Care Endowment Fund (ComCare), various assistance schemes are administered by CDCs under the following pillars:

ComCare Pre-school and Student Care Assistance	ComCare Long Term Assistance	ComCare Short- and Medium-Term Assistance
ComCare Child Care Subsidy (Also known as the Centre Based Financial Assistance for Child Care, CFAC) ComCare Child Care Subsidy helps those who need to put their children in a childcare centre because they have to work, but have difficulties paying the fees.	Public Assistance (PA) PA assists those who are unable to work due to old age, illness or disability, have little or no means of living and minimal or no family support.	Work Support ComCare short-term assistance through the Work Support Programme is available to low-income families to support them as they take steps to become self-reliant through work. A Community Development Council (CDC) Officer will work with the family to develop an action plan to help the family move towards employment and self-reliance.
ComCare Kindergarten Subsidy (Also known as the Kindergarten Financial Assistance Scheme. KiFAS) ComCare Kindergarten Subsidy provides monthly fee subsidies for those who cannot afford the fees to place a child in a kindergarten.	Special Grant (SG) SG is a parallel scheme to PA, catering to needy permanent residents of Singapore.	ComCare Transitions This scheme provides assistance for those temporarily unable to work or support themselves and their family, due to temporary illness, disability or other extenuating circumstances.
ComCare Student Care Subsidy (Also known as the Student Care Fee Assistance, SCFA) SCFA provides fee subsidies for those who cannot afford the fees to place a child aged 7 to 14 in before- or after-school care.

Note: The local CDCs have different programmes under the three broad ComCare categories. Service users should also check with individual CDC for local schemes available to residents in the individual CDC districts.
